Strategic AI Innovation Partner Sponsorship

Support the Executive Certificate in Applied AI for Airports and align your brand with senior airport executives actively developing AI implementation strategies.

This intensive executive program is designed for airport leaders building practical AI roadmaps, pilot initiatives, governance models, and procurement strategies. Participants leave with board-ready plans to advance AI-driven transformation across airport operations.

This is a focused executive cohort—not a general conference audience—comprised of decision-makers shaping technology investments and modernization efforts
